

Statesmen and Diplomats of the Dual Monarchy of the Hapsburgs

MICHAEL KAROLYI,
leader of the Liberal
element in the Reichsrat, now President of the new Republic of Hungary.

BARON
STEPHAN BURIAN,
Austro-Hungarian Minister of Foreign Affairs,
who was succeeded by Count Andrássy.

COUNT OTTAKER
CZERNIN VON
CHUDENITZ,
Minister of Foreign Affairs, who resigned
after publication of the
"Dear Sixtus" letter.

COUNT ETIENNE TISZA, Conservative and Germanophile Hungarian statesman, who was assassinated Nov. 3, 1918.

BARON MAX VON HUSSAREK,
who succeeded to the Premiership when the von Seidler Cabinet fell from power, July, 1918.

DR. CONSTANTIN DUMBA, former Ambassador to the United States,
whose recall was demanded by the Government at Washington.